1) Supporting the R1 million KZN Breeders Mile on Sunday, 30 June 2013 will be six other races carrying a stake of R200 000 each but restricted to horses that qualify as KZN-breds. The meeting comes the weekend before the KZN Yearling Sale and will give added incentive to prospective buyers to invest in KZN-bred stock.

2) The six supporting races will be two races each over 1200m, 1600m and 1900m, one each for fillies and mares and colts and geldings respectively. The races will be open to all horses country-wide whose credentials meet the criteria of "KZN bred" as prescribed by the rules of the KZN Breeders premium scheme.

3) To qualify for the races, points will be awarded in the months leading up to the racemeeting, from 1January 2013 to time of Final Acceptance.

4) Horses registered at first entry will receive a 4-point bonus but horses supplemented in April will not qualify for the bonus.

5) Points for Maiden races will be awarded on a 4, 3, 2 basis for first, second and third. All other races, including Grade 1's, will have points awarded from first to fifth on 8, 6, 4, 3, 1 basis.

6) Points will be awarded regardless of the distance of the races and it will be up to the connections of the horses as to which races they nominate for. The intention is to publish a points log on a fortnightly basis.

ALL RACES RUN THROUGHOUT SOUTH AFRICA FROM 1 JAN 2013 QUALIFY FOR POINT-SCORING PURPOSES
